Our School Rules

1. Respect yourself and others as a child of God.
2. Contribute to the learning environment.
3. Follow classroom procedures.

Greetings,

At Most Precious Blood we have great success with “Parents as Partners.” This week during conferences it is important to keep in mind that we are on the same team and want what is best for our children. Conferences will highlight student strengths. Conferences may have difficult academic or behavioral conversations. These powerful conversations and working together as partners is essential for the success of our children. Thank you for your continual commitment of making the academic and spiritual growth of your child(ren) a priority.

Have a Blessed Fall Break,

Mr. Stanley Liponoga IV

Principal
